

Shoes upon the table

SUPERSTITION
HOW MANY QUOTES FROM THE PLAY
CAN YOU FIND ABOUT SUPERSTITION?

An' a spider's been killed

[Empty box for notes]

[Empty box for notes]

Which character is superstitious?
Why is this important?

[Empty box for notes]

What superstition does Mrs Lyons make up?

[Empty box for notes]

Someone broke the looking glass

Why does the narrator pose this question at the end of the play?

*And do we blame superstition for what came to pass?
Or is it what we, the English, have come to know as class?*

Ain't no point clutching at your rosary

Do you blame superstition for the ending of the play?
Why is superstition important in Blood Brothers?